LAUDINO CACCIN

Laudino Caccin's love of quality was born 60 years ago when he started a business with his brothers in the province of Padua, in the North-East of Italy.

His search for quality, comfort and elegance made the name Laudino Caccin an important point of reference for designers and companies around the world.

Laudino Caccin still controls all aspects of the production through the talented hands of craftsmen, from designing to cutting, from sewing to assembly.

After 60 years Laudino Caccin continues to be a company that stands for craftsmanship, quality, comfort and elegance; a company that knows how to satisfy its customers, understand their needs, propose innovative solutions and implementation.

The Laudino Caccin product lines bear witness to Made in Italy: a true guarantee of the quality of the product.

The Laudino Caccin collections for both men & women are characterized by an exclusively luxurious production; everything is made in Italy, using the most sophisticated and modern techniques available.

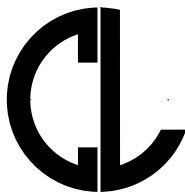

The entire production cycle is controlled and managed, step by step, by highly qualified personnel who guarantee a meticulous attention to detail.
